entertaining space all ideally positioned to take advantage of the sea breezes.

Returning to the hallway, you will be greeted by the solid wood staircase with its picture windows and matching designer chandelier. At the top of the stairs the true size of this house is fully appreciated with a 26m² rumpus leading to 3 oversized Bedrooms Suites each of which could be a master in their own right. All with walk in robes and en-suite bathrooms boasting stone bench tops, porcelain tiles and large showers.

The upstairs is completed with master of all master suites at nearly 50m². Once through a bank of 5 mirrored wardrobes you enter the main bedroom with views over the park and mountains in the distance. The master en-suite boasts double vanities with 40mm stone bench tops, and a luxurious oversized bathtub and shower enclosure. Through the en-suite comes yet more storage with a full dressing room finishing what has to be the parent's sanctuary to surpass all others.

This truly magnificent home really is one to be seen to be believed, one plenty of space for everyone and no compromises made, boasting designer luxury throughout and delivering what has to be one of the best family homes on the springs.

Located on one of the premier streets of Peregrine Springs, minutes from excellent private and public schools, beautiful parks, shopping centre and golf course. Noosa, Maroochydore and the airport are all within 15 minutes with the magnificent Peregrine and Coolumb beaches being only a short drive away.
